Living on Purpose #4

Gahanna campus

1. Have someone read aloud Hebrews 12:1-3. What does it mean to throw off sin and hindrances? To run with perseverance? To fix our eyes on Jesus?
2. When you read about a "large cloud of witnesses," what do you picture? Why is such a group significant to believers?
3. How does the sports metaphor in this passage help your understanding of the concept of Christian endurance? Why do you think the writer used this image?
4. Many abandon their faith because of temptation and sin. Others get frustrated with events in their life when God doesn't do things the way they think He should. And others drop out because they grow weary and lose heart. When have you faced any of these and what has kept you running toward the finish line?
