

Psalm 48:1-2; 9-14 (NIV)

Psalm 48:1 Great is the Lord, and most worthy of praise, in the city of our God, his holy mountain.² Beautiful in its loftiness, the joy of the whole earth, like the heights of Zaphon is Mount Zion, the city of the Great King.

Psalm 48: 9 Within your temple, O God, we meditate on your unfailing love.¹⁰ Like your name, O God, your praise reaches to the ends of the earth; your right hand is filled with righteousness.¹¹ Mount Zion rejoices, the villages of Judah are glad because of your judgments.¹² Walk about Zion, go around her, count her towers,¹³ consider well her ramparts, view her citadels, that you may tell of them to the next generation.¹⁴ For this God is our God for ever and ever; he will be our guide even to the end.

"The spirit of the age, even in the Christian, spawns great thoughts of man, and leaves room for only small thoughts of God." - A. W. Tosier

"The church has surrendered her once lofty concept of God and has substituted it for one so low, so ignoble as to be utterly unworthy of thinking, worshipping men." - A. W. Tosier
